

My Name is Henry Fanshaw

The true story of New Zealand's bomber squadron

Written by Gillian Torckler

Illustrated by Adele Jackson

HI! I'M HENRY,

I'VE TRAVELLED THE WORLD AS 75 SQUADRON'S MASCOT, AND AM NOW HAPPILY RETIRED HERE AT THE MUSEUM!

SOME FRIENDS OF MINE HAVE HELPED ME WRITE A BOOK! COME AND JOIN US ON 20 APRIL SO WE CAN TELL YOU ALL ABOUT IT!

Meet the real Henry Fanshaw, author Gillian Torckler and illustrator Adele Jackson.

2-3pm / 20 April / Air Force Museum of New Zealand

Join us to discover the story of Fanshaw's Squadron in his own words and how he inspired this beautifully illustrated book. Don't miss this FREE family event with book reading and signing, craft activities, fun fact-filled talks and spot prizes too!
